SPONDA

Unique property with a premium location

Mikonkatu 19 is a unique office and retail property in a premium location in the Fennia Quarter in the heart of Helsinki. Situated next to the Railway Station Square, the property is easily accessible by public transport from all corners of the Helsinki metropolitan area.

The property consists of two buildings, one on Mikonkatu and the other on Vilhonkatu. The buildings are partially connected. Both buildings have five floors and three underground levels. The first two floors consist of retail space and the upper floors office space.

The premises of this magnificent historic property, completely renovated for modern office use, provide a superb setting for companies of any size. The premises also feature restored original elements, such as a splendid staircase and an old ceramic stove. The property offers both traditional office space and adaptable open-plan office space.

Thanks to the central location, the commercial and corporate services of the city centre are all within a short walking distance.
